

11 Dido in Love

soror, sororis (f.)	sister quis, quid	what kind of ego, me	I, me
suspensus, suspensa, suspensum	uncertain, doubtful; anxious insomnium, insomnii (n.)	a dream terreo, terrere, terrui, territum	to terrify novus, nova, novum	new; strange hic (adv.)	here
succedo, succedere, successi, successum	to enter, approach; arrive noster, nostra, nostrum	our sedes, sedis (f.)	a seat; a residence or home hospes, hospitis (m.)	a host; a guest sese (emphatic form of se)	himself, herself, itself, themselves os, oris (n.)	face, mouth ferens, ferentis	carrying, bearing fortis, forte	strong; brave pectus, pectoris (n.)	chest armus, armi (m.)	an arm credo, credere, credidi, creditum	to believe equidem	for my part; truly vanus, vana, vanum	empty fides, fidei (f.)	pledge, faith, belief genus, generis (n.)	stock dei, deorum (m. pl.)	the gods degener, degeneris	degenerate, weak animi, animorum (m. pl.)	spirits timor, timoris (f.)	fear arguo, arguere, argui, argutum	to make clear; to show or prove heu	alas iactatus, iactata, iactatum	thrown, tossed fatum, fati (n.)	fate; (in plural) the Fates bellum, belli (n.)	war exhaustus, exhausta, exhaustum	drained; undergone cano, canere, cecini, cantum	to sing