

9 Country Life

adultus, adulta, adultum	matured, grown up altus, alta, altum	tall amphora, amphorae (f.)	an amphora, a storage container amputo, amputare, amputavi, amputatum	to cut off; prune aut ... aut	either ... or beatus, beata, beatum	happy, blessed bos, bovis (m.)	a cow; (in plural) cattle civis, civis (m. or f.)	citizen classicum, classici (n.)	trumpet; the trumpet's sound condo, condere, condidi, conditum	to store ergo	therefore errans, errantis	wandering excito, excitare, excitavi, excitatum	to excite, to rouse exerceo, exercere, exercui, exercitum	to keep busy, work at, train faenerator, faeneratoris (m.)	moneylender faenus, faenoris (n.)	interest falx, falcis (f.)	sickle felicior, felicioris	happier
Forum, Fori (n.)	Forum, the central civic area of Rome futurus (from sum)	about to be gens, gentis (f.)	family; people; stock grex, gregis (m.)	a herd haec	these things
horreo, horrere, horruui	to tremble, shiver; be horrified at iam iam	just now
Idus, Iduum (f.)	the Ides (13 th /15 th day of the Roman month) ille, illa, illud	that (man) in (+ abl.)	in
infirmus, infirma, infirmum	weak, powerless insero, inserere, inserui, insertum	to insert; to graft inutilis, inutile	useless iratus, irata, iratum	angry Kalendae, Kalendarum (f. pl.)	the Kalends (1 st day of the Roman month) limen, liminis (n.)	a threshold loquor, loqui, locutus sum (deponent)	to speak mare, maris (n.)	sea
marito, maritare, maritavi, maritatum	to marry mel pressum	pressed honey mile, militis (m.)	soldier mortales, mortaliu(m) (m. or f. pl.)	mortals mugiens, mugientis	moo-ing; (as noun) a moo-er negotium, negotii (n.)	business neque ... neque	neither ... nor omnis, omne	each, every

ovis, ovis (f.)	sheep
paternus, paterna, paternum	paternal; relating to a father pecunia, pecuniae (f.)	money pono, ponere, posui, positum	to place; to put populus, populi (f.)	a poplar tree potentiores, potentiorum (m. pl.)	the more powerful priscus, prisca, priscum	old-time; ancient procul (adv)	far, far from propago, propaginis (f.)	a shoot; offspring prospecto, prospectare, prospectavi, prospectatum	to look out purus, pura, purum	pure, clean quaero, quaerere, quaesivi, quaesitum	to seek qui, quae, quod	who, which, that ramus, rami (m.)	branch redigo, redigere, redegī, redactum	to call in; call back reductus, reducta, reductum	receding rus, ruris (n.)	the country; (in plural) fields, lands rusticus, rustici (m.)	a country person solvo, solvere, solvi, solutum	to loose, loosen superbus, superba, superbum	proud suus, sua, suum	his, her, its, their own tondeo, tondēre, totondi, tonsum	to shear trux, trucis	savage, wild, fierce ubi	when ut (+ indicative)	as vallis, vallis (f.)	a valley vitis, vitis (f.)	a vine vito, vitare, vitavi, vitatum	to avoid